Monday, April 22. 1723.

London, April 22.

On Saturday and Yesterday arrived the Mails from Holland, France and Flanders.

Constantinople, March 10.

THE Emperour's Resident M. Dierling, having received an Express from his Court the 6th Instant, had a long Audience the next Day of the Grand Vizier, who assured him that the Porte was resolved always to observe faithfully every Article of the Treaty of Carlowitz. The Grand Vizier has also caused the Effendi, or High Treasurer of the Ottoman Empire, to signify to all the foreign Ministers, that the Porte will in like Manner observe the Peace made with the Venetian Republick, with which, at present, the Grand Sultan is well content. The 12000 Janizaries that have passed the Hellespont are paid their Arrears, and the Aga and Seraskier Bashaw are ordered to pay the Army punctually which is to be assembled on the Frontiers of Persia; 'tis intended by so doing, to prevent the like Disorders which were occasioned in Egypt.

Moscow, March 24. All the Regiments in this City and Parts adjacent, are ordered to march forthwith towards the Persian Frontiers, to be near at Hand to oppose the Usbec Tartars and those of Daguestan, who seem to intend an Invasion near Astracan, in Revenge of the Muscovites last Expedition. The Turks still expect the Czar's withdrawing his Troops from Derbent and neighbouring Places, otherwise a War is unavoidable.

Stockholm, March 27. O. S. Yesterday the States assembled, after several Days Intermission; when the Committee for regulating the Pretensions of the several Officers returned out of Muscovy made their Report, which contained a Scheme for replacing those Officers among the Troops now on Foot. This Day the Officers in Post have protested against that Scheme, alledging it to be directly contrary to the present settled Form of Government, and the Dispositions made in 1719, and the two following Years.

Stockholm, April 10. It is not likely that M. Bassewitz, the Duke of Holstein's Minister, will succeed in any Point of his Negociations at this Court; that relating to the Succession especially: And as to the 300000 Crowns he solicites Payment, 'tis also believed he will not obtain it, by Reason 'tis alledged that it has been resolved to abolish that Subsidy.

Vienna, April 14. On Sunday last in the Afternoon Sig. Francisco Dona, Ambassadour from Venice, made his Publick Entry to this City. His Entry was very magnificent, and the like Honours were shewn him that are usually paid to Ambassadours from crown'd Heads. It is reported that the Court is determined to rebuild the City of Buda, though 'tis reckoned the Charges of repairing the Fortifications will amount to above two Millions. 'Tis certainly suspected that the Fire there was occasioned by Incendiaries, since at Presburg a Quantity of combustible Matter has lately been discovered, with Lighted Matches, and the Incendiary very narrowly escaped being taken.

Copenhagen, April 19. Yesterday the Queen received Compliments of Court from all the Nobility and Foreign Ministers, on Occasion of her being her Majesty's Birth-Day. The States General's Envoy M. Goes, has had several Conferences lately with our Ministers, and 'tis allowed that the Matters they had to confer upon are terminated.

Hambourg, April 20. Advices from Petersbourg say, that the Czar is already set out from thence towards Revel and Riga, and that he is soon to be followed by the Duke of Holstein and others. 'Tis said, the Duke's Partizans grow every Day more and more sensible that they have trusted only in false Appearances of Advantage by their Attachment to the Muscovites. Letters of the 6th Instant from Copenhagen give an Account of great Rejoycings made there the 5th, O. S. on Occasion of the Anniversary of the Birth of the Queen, who then entred her 31st Year.

Madrid, April 13. Their Catholick Majesties and the Royal Family are in good Health at the Castle of Aranjuez, where they divert themselves with Hunting often, and taking the Air. On the 30th past the Fryars of the Redemption arrived from Cartagena, with 425 Slaves they had redeemed from Algiers. It is advised from Cadiz, that Orders were come thither for fitting out four Men of War, to be added to the Squadron which is to be commanded by the Marquess Mari, and to be employed this Summer in the Mediterranean: And that the Fleet for New Spain will not be ready to put to Sea before the End of June.

Paris, April 28. The Franciscan Fryars of this Kingdom who set out for Rome against the meeting of their General Chapter, and went by Land thro' Germany and Switzerland, are arrived there; but those who embarked at Monaco near Nice, just as they were entring the Port of Genoa, the Wind turned contrary, and obliged them to go back to Toulon, from whence they are returned to their several Convents. The Quarantain they must have undergone at their Arrival in Italy, would have prevented their Attendance at their General Chapter in proper Time in case they had put to Sea again from Toulon. On the 19th Instant, the Duke du Maine, and his Son the Prince de Dombes, reviewed the French and Swiss Guards in the Plain des Sablons. Commissioners are appointed to give their Opinions in Writing concerning the Difficulties which remain to be taken away, for the Re-establishment of that Prince in all his Honours; and 'tis already said, that the Dutchess du Maine is to be made Superintendante of the Infanta Queen's Education. The Bishop of Nantz is appointed Secretary to the approaching Assembly of the Clergy. The Count de San Estevan, Plenipotentiary from his Catholick Majesty, who came hither to compliment the King on his Majority, is returned to Compiegne. The Actions are at 1290 Livres; the Liquidations at 20.
